Dear Mom & Dad,

We leave Monday on our trip. Taking the 747 from Dulles to London where we change planes and fly to Naples. From there I and the two other fellows will fly on a little plane out to the carrier and land on it (I hope!). Vickie will stay in Naples a while and then go on to Rome. We will be in Naples over night so she will have a chance to get oriented before striking out on her own. Our plans are as follows:

Please do not mention my dates to others - they may be considered Confidential.
Vickie's schedule isn't fixed - she probably will be riding the train and can go on to another city when she wishes.

We got a letter from Hil about skiing but we can't go because we will only be home a week before he wants to go. Anyway it is too expensive to go way out West when we can drive up to Vermont for a long weekend.

Saw some pictures on the news of Seattle's snow.
Also noticed that it was very cold. The weather is tried here for fancy. We went up to N.Y.C. for the weekend with some friends.

Rode the metroliner - it is very nice with wide cushioned seats and a carpeted floor. Saw Fiddler on the Roof, but I didn't think it was anything special - boring, in fact.

Glad you liked the things from Russia. We will probably bring back lots from Europe. I got an American Express card and it encourages spending.

Sorry about the messy letter - I will start typing again!
